

Terms & Conditions

Terms & Conditions for Lifesquare Leadership Initiative

Use of Our Services

By engaging with Lifesquare Leadership Initiative, you agree to utilize our services responsibly and adhere to our guidelines, ensuring a positive and respectful experience for all involved.

Recognition & Award Eligibility

Honorary recognitions are awarded following a comprehensive evaluation process. Any misrepresentation of achievements may result in disqualification or the revocation of honors.

Payments & Refunds

All payments must be made in full as agreed upon. Fees are non-refundable, except in the event of program cancellations initiated by Lifesquare Leadership Initiative.

Content Ownership

All materials, content, and intellectual property provided during training sessions, events, or related activities remain the property of Lifesquare Leadership Initiative, unless otherwise specified.

Changes & Updates

We reserve the right to update or modify our terms and conditions as necessary. Continued engagement with our services constitutes acceptance of any such updates or revisions.

Privacy Policy

We prioritize and respect your privacy. Any personal information shared with Lifesquare Leadership Initiative is used exclusively for communication, registration, and the provision of services. We do not sell or share your data with third parties without your explicit consent.

Code of Conduct

We expect all honourees, participants, and collaborators to maintain the highest standards of integrity, respect, and professionalism. Discriminatory behaviour, harassment, or any actions that conflict with our values will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Disclaimer

Recognitions and awards from Lifesquare Leadership Initiative and its partners do not equate to academic qualifications or university degrees. These awards are honorary, serving as symbolic acknowledgments of impact, leadership, and contributions to the field.